3.01 Personnel.

The Police Department of the Town of Hustisford shall be contracted out to the Dodge County Sherriff's department.

3.05 Civilians to Assist.

It shall be the duty of all persons in the Town, when called upon by any police officer or peace officer, to promptly aid and assist him in the execution of his duties. Whoever shall neglect or refuse to give such aid or assistance shall be subject to a penalty as provided in Section 15.06 of this code.

3.06 Obedience to Officers.

See Section 12.946.40 of this code.

3.07 Assisting Escape of Prisoner.

See Section 12.946.44 of this code.

3.08 Impersonating Police Officers.

See Section 12.946.70 of this code.

3.09 Special Peace Officers.

The Town Chairman and Supervisors shall have and exercise the powers of peace officers and may summarily suppress any riotous or disorderly conduct in the streets or public places of the Town.

3.10 Civil Defense.

- (1) Definition. Civil Defense Shall mean the preparation for and the carrying out of all emergency functions other than functions for which the military forces are primarily responsible, to minimize and repair injury and damage resulting from disaster caused by enemy attack, sabotage or other hostile action or by fire, flood or other natural causes.
- (2) Civil Defense Director.
 - a) Appointment. See Section 2.05 of this code.
 - b) Duties and Powers. The Director shall be the executive head of the Town civil defense organization and shall have direct responsibility for the organization, administration and operation of the organization, subject to the direction and control of the Town Chairman and the Town Board. In addition to such powers and responsibilities as may be imposed on him from time to time by the Town Board, he shall have the authority and it shall be his duty to:

- 1) Coordinate all activities for civil defense within the Town.
 - 2) Maintain liaison and cooperate with civil defense agencies and organizations of other political subdivisions and of the State and Federal government.
 - 3) Participate in county and State civil defense activities upon request.
 - 4) Prepare a comprehensive general plan for the civil defense of the Town and present such plan to the Town Board for approval.
 - 5) Subject to the approval of the Town Board, enter into mutual aid agreements with other political subdivisions and file copies of any such agreements with the State Director of Civil Defense.
 - 6) Upon the declaration of an emergency, issue all necessary proclamations as to the existence of such state of emergency and such disaster warnings or alerts as shall be required in the civil defense plan.
- (3) Utilization of Existing Services and Facilities. In preparing and executing the civil defense plan, the Director shall utilize the services, equipment, supplies and facilities of the existing departments and agencies of the Town to the maximum extent practicable. When the Town Board has approved the plan, it shall be the duty of all municipal agencies and departments of the Town to perform the duties and functions assigned by the approved plan.
- (4) Declaration of Emergencies. The civil defense organization shall take action in accordance with the civil defense plan only after the declaration of an emergency and issue of official disaster warnings. Declaration of emergency shall be made by the Governor, the Town Board, the Town Chairman or, in his absence, by the Director. Such state of emergency shall continue until terminated by the issuing authority, provided that any declaration not issued by the Governor may be terminated by the Town Board.
- (5) Emergency Regulations. Whenever necessary to meet a civil defense emergency for which adequate regulations have not been adopted by the Town Board, the Town Chairman and, in his absence, the Director of Civil Defense, may proclaim, promulgate and enforce orders, rules and regulations, relating to the conduct of persons and the use of property which are necessary to protect the public peace, health and safety, and preserve lives and property, and to insure cooperation in civil defense activities. Such proclamations shall be posted in three public places and may be rescinded by resolution of the Town Board.
- (6) Obstruction of Defense Organization: Penalty. No person shall willfully obstruct, hinder or delay any member of the civil defense organization in the enforcement of any order, rule, regulation or plan issued pursuant to this section or violates any order, rule, regulation or plan issued pursuant to the authority contained in this section. Any person who shall violate any provision of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a penalty as provided in Section 15.04 of this code.
